NEW-YORK AND BROOKLYN HAVE EACH WON A GAME.

BROOKLYN ENTHUSIASTS YELL THEMSELVES HOARSE OVER THE VICTORY AT EAST-ERN PARK - CLEVER FIELDING AND HEAVY BATTING BY THE

GAMES YESTERDAY. Fork 14 Washington 5. Pittsburg 2. Louisville 1 Brooklyn S. Philadelphia 2. Cheveland 12. Cincinnat Brooklyn S. Baltimore 3. St. Louis 13. Chicago 3.

there was a ray of sunshine for the followers of baseballin New-York and Brooklyn yesterday, for the baseballin set of their headlong flight down the aseball toboggan chute, and each won a game. This is nusual proceeding this year, and the Giants and oms have cut away from Anson and his leaving the pride of Chicago floundering in the slough of despondency with a winning percent age of three zeros with a period in front. Probably Chicago will win a game some day, and then the wicked City can throb with pride and exaltation. as New-York and Brooklyn are doing to-day, these two victories yesterday will have a beneficial effect upon the followers of the teams herebouts, for five consecutive defeats would have been Bittle more than the "rooters" could stand without lling out their "tack hammers" and looking for same heads to hit. New-Yorkers do not like a losing team, while a few consecutive defeats of Foutz's men sets Gowanus Canal on fire and makes New-Creek bubble up with fumes distasteful to the olfactory nerves.

SOMETHING LIKE IT.

About 2,500 people went to Eastern Park yesterday prepared to howl in derision in case the Bridems should lose and to yell with joy in case ney should win. It's a way they have in Brooklyn. The yell was joyous, loud and vibrating, for Brooklyn defeated those hard-hitting, homely athletes from the Quaker City, and captured her first game Stein was at his best, and while he semed flurried for an instant in the second inning. he recovered quickly, and Philadelphia's hits were well scattered after that. The work of the home eam was in vast contrast to that done on Tuesday, and prettier fielding work than that done by utz's men yesterday is seldom seen

The Philadelphia team could not bat with its d effect, and when a pitcher can stop the Quakers from making basehits he stops them from playing baseball, at least to a great extent. as effective for six innings, and then went all to pieces, the home players making ten basehits nd earning seven runs in the last two innings. The misshapen miniature individual who acts as a mascot for Brooklyn was struck with a tip in the seventh inning, and the little fellow reled right lustily, as he was picked up in the brawny arms of Tredway and carried to the players' beach. He was more frightened than hurt. It was at this point that the home team began to bat, and game. Whether the "hoodoo" was knocked the mascot, or what, only the superstitious

HOW THE GAME WAS WON. Philadelphia men went first to the bat, and though they made one hit and Brooklyn made we neither side scored. In the second inning each made a run. For Philadelphia, Thompson was sent to first on called balls, and Cross sacrificed him sent to first on called balls, and Cross sacrificed him to second. Clements was also sent to first on called balls. Taylor forced out Clements, and when Taylor stole second Thompson scored. For Brooklyn, Shindle got to first on an error by Allen, and Kinslow a two-bagger past third scored Shindle.

The score remained a tie until the seventh inning, when the home team sent three men around the circuit, taking the lead amid great excitement.
Shindle led off with a two-base hit, and Tredway's hit to left sent home Shindle. On Delehanty's fumble Tredway kept on to second. Kinslow hit safely, and Tredway scored. Stein's sacrifice put Kinslow on second, and Griffin's hit sent him home.
The Bridegrooms clinched their victory in the sighth inning by batting in good style and scoring four more runs. The home team made six consecutive hits, and all the runs were carned. In the last inning, a three-base hit by Thompson and a steal home gave the Quaker City men their final run. The score was as follows:

GAMES IN OTHER CITIES.

Baltimore, April 25.-It is no longer the unbeaten Orioles. Boston outplayed them at every point today, excepting in the pitcher's department, and won by the score of 6 to 3. Baltimore made more errors than Boston did basehits. Mullane had perfect control of the ball, but his support was miserable in the extreme. Attendance, 7,980. The score: 0 2 0 3 0 0 1 0 x

ARBOR DAY AT OCEAN GROVE.

Ocean Grove, N. J., April 25 (Special).-The Ocean Grove Camp-Meeting Association several years ago set apart this date as "Arbor Day" to commemorate the memory of those members of the Association who died in the service of the Church. So to-day the custom of former years was observed, without taking heed of the National day that is to be celebrated two days hence. From noon until nightfall the services were participated in by a large assembling of the residents of the Grove, and goodly numbers of visitors from abroad, principally relatives and friends of the deceased members of the Association. The-Rev. Dr. E. H. Stokes, president of the Association, assisted by the Rev. James Alday, conducted the exercises at the planting of the trees around the new auditorium. The regular memorial services took place to-night in St. Paul's M. E. Church.

Milwaukes, April 25.-Silas W. Pettit, of Philadeiphia, and ex-Senator John C. Spooner measured lances in the United States Court this morning of he question of appointing masters in chancery to take testimony against Receiver Thomas F. Oakes, of the Northern Pacific Railroad. Mr. Pettit offered an order for the court's signature, appointing E. B. Sherman, of Chicago, and John A. Shields, of New-York, masters, to take testimony without a time limit. Mr. Sherman, according to this order, was to take evidence on the Rocky Forks and the North-Shields on the Northern Pacific and Chicago Terern Pacific and Manitoba transactions, and Mr.

Shields on the Northern Pacific and Chicago Terminals deals.
Colonel Spooner said that he would submit an order appointing one master. The order should not be made a drustner for ulterlor purposes which Mr. Ives might have in view. It would not be fair to Cakes, Colonel Spooner said, to permit the other side to elight facts for the mere purpose of bringing a future action against his client.

With reference to the length of time Colonei Petit said that thirty days would do him. The court asked him what places he might wish the masters to visit, and he caused something of a sonsation by declaring that since the suit had begun several witnesses whom he had desired had been suddenly removed. For this reason he did not care to say at what point he desired to take testimony—at New-York or Chicago.

George P. Miller presented the surgestion of the receivers in the afternoon. The master was to report to the court whether any of the directors had made unlawful profits, and if so, whether it was with the knowledge of Thomas F. Oakes, and if profits were made by the directors ought Thomas F. Oakes to have known of it, and did Thomas F. Oakes to have known of it, and did Thomas F. Oakes exercise due diligence. Sixty days was thought necessary for taking and thirty for writing exercise due diligence. Sixty days was a necessary for taking and thirty for writing up the testimony.

Judge Jenkins announced that he would hand down his order to-morrow morning. It was settled, however, that the Northern Pacific company shall have thirty days in which to take its testimony, the receivers to begin immediately afterward.

THE CASE OF JUDGE JENKINS. A LETTER WHICH MAY LEAD TO IMPEACHMENT PROCEEDINGS.

Milwaukes, April 25 - The letter of James H. Mc-Jenkins, which the Boatner Investigating Commitee will probably report to the House, was sed, was handed to Judge Jenkins by his brotherin-law, George P. Miller, Mr. Miller admitted to the Investigating Committee that it was this letter which was the basis of the injunction. The labor leaders said that they had no idea of striking at the time, and were there in conference with the officials of the road. The letter of Mr. McNaught was written at St. Paul December 21. It was ad-lows:

We ought to have another order issued prohibiting the controlling powers of the various organizations from ordering a strike. There is a very large number of Northern Pacific employes in each of the eight branches mentioned in Mr. Kendrick's letter who will not strike unless ordered to do so by their superior officers, and it is to prevent this order being issued that I think we ought to address our very best attention now. If a strike is ordered the eight departments will undoubtedly obey it and all walk out in a body, and this will paralyze the road for many weeks and prevent it from moving trains. It is not possible for us to procure sufficient men between now and the list of January to move the trains and handle the business. A strike on the list of January of all the eight departments on our road will cause irreparable damage to every community through which the Northern Pacific is not reached by any other railroad or telegraph line or express common to the commercial facilities are furnished by these three departments of our commany. All of the commercial facilities are furnished by these three departments of our commany.

The petition should be broad enough to prevent the various labor organizations from taking any steps tending to facilitate or assist in the making

IN THE WORLD OF BUSINESS.

RECEIVER FOR A TRUST COMPANY.

Philadelphia, April 25.-Application was made for receivers this afternoon for the Commercial Loan and Trust Company, at No. 1,339 Arch-st. The company is incorporated under the laws of West Virginia. Its authorized capital is $500,000, of which, it is asserted, 5103,000 has been paid in. The comit is asserted, $103,000 has been paid in. The company does a general brokerage and loan business. It has a branch office in Pittsburg.

The application for receivers was made by the bondholders, who allege that the company has only $1,000 capital, and that its assets consist only of the contribution of the bondholders. The company is a sort of short-time, bond-issuing company, and assesses its bondholders monthly on the bonds they hold. It is held by the Citizens' Reitef Committee that the company was lending money at usurious interest to people of small means, and the committee was about to sue the company to recover the money loaned to these people. This probably hasiened the application for a receiver.

CONFIDENCE IN THE SHERMAN BANK. The business of the Sherman Bank, at Broadway and Eighteenth-st., went on as usual yesterday. A number of the depositors who withdrew their money during the brief run last week made fresh deposits early in the day, and said that they were deposits early in the day, and said that they were glad that the stability of the bank had been proved. Several business men who never had been depositors at the bank opened accounts there. They said they had not known of the character of the directors of the bank until the newspapers told about the manly fight which the directors had made. Mr. Northrup, the cashier of the bank, said it was evident that the bank had gained considerable sympathy on account of the attacks which had been made, and when it was made plain by the examination of the State Banking Department that there had been no dishonesty and no impairment of the capital of the bank, the confidence of the public was quickly restored.

MEETING OF SECURITY-HOLDERS.

A meeting of the security-holders of the J. B. Watkins Land Mortgage Company, which recently went into the hands of a receiver, has been called for 2 p. m. to-day, at the offices of the company, No. 2 Wall-st. According to the circular sent out by J. B. Watkins, the president of the company and the present receiver, a plan of reorganization will be acted upon. "All outstanding debentures," the circular says, "will be called in, and new bonds issued for the same amount at the same rate of interest, and on the same security as the surrendered bonds, but due five years later. That holders of guaranteed mortgages may be as nearly as possible on the same footing with debenture holders. holders of guaranteed mortgage and possible on the same footing with debenture hold all such mortgage bonds shall be called in, an indorsement made thereon, extending payment five years from maturity, unless sooner colle from the mortgagor, in which case the money be at once subject to the investor's order."

HE WANTS TO PAY ANOTHER DIVIDEND. Ex-Mayor Grant, receiver of the St. Nicholas Bank, will make an application on Monday in the Supreme Court for permission to pay a dividend of Supreme Court for permission to pay a divining of 20 per cent to the depositors. The receiver has collected and deposited in the Central Trust Company $1.725,299. Of this amount $412,699 represents collections made after the bank suspended by the Superintendent of the State Banking Department. The petition says that the liabilities of the bank amount to about $2,400,000, and that the 40 per cent dividend already paid amounted to $747,733.

MINOR BUSINESS COMPLICATIONS.

The Sheriff has taken charge of the store of Lewis W. Marks, doing business as Marks & Co. sale dealer in artificial flowers, at No. 641 Broad-way, corner of Bieecker-st., on an execution for $12,113 in favor of Jacob A. Stein. The total amount of the claim was $27.863 and interest, on which Mr. Marks paid $12.258. Myer J. Stein, the attorney, said that the liabilities of Mr. Marks are about $15,000, and his troubles are attributed to the depres sion in business and inability to get a loan which he expected. He could give no estimate of the Bank. Louis Hannemann has been appointed receiver for the Pifth Avenue Railway Company, of No. 168 Broadway, on the application of George H. Davidson, who obtained a judgment against the company on Monday last for $2,020, which the Sheriff re on Monday last for $2,00, which the Sheriff re-turned unsatisfied. The company was organized several years ago, under New-York State laws, with a capital stock of $2,00,00, with a view of building a railroad in Fifth-ave, but the concern was re-garded as a paper project. Thomas B. Musgrave, formerly a Wall Street banker, is the president, and Charles M. Stend was treasurer. The directors are said to have been James A. Dennison, Jay Allen, Edward V. Loew, Edwin P. Woodward, A. S. Hatch and Messrs, Musgrave and Stead.

CAPT. KEEN, OF THE DELCOMYN, FINED.

COLLECTOR KILBRETH WILL TRY TO HAVE THE PENALTY REMITTED - THE CAP-TAIN'S PRAISEWORTHY ACTION.

Captain Thomas R. Keen, of the steamer Delomyn, from Buenos Ayres and Rio Janeiro, has been fined $1,000 for violation of Section 9 of the Passenger act of 1892, which prohibits the captain of a vessel from bringing passengers into this port without entering their names as such on the passenger list. It is not likely that the fine will ever be paid, for it was earned in saving life. Captain A. E. Goddard, of Chicago, and three women asked for passage home from Buenos Ayres, but, as the Delcomyn would stop at Rio, Captain Keen was doubtful if he could succeed in getting his passengers through safely on account of the strict barbor rules When the vessel reached Rio the consul there begged Captain Keen to take on board a Mrs. Cushing, who was in danger of catching yellow fever. During the twenty days' stay at Rio five more fugitives, all of them Brazilians, swam out to the steamer In order to escape the vigliance of the authorities at Rio, the eleven persons were enlisted as crew and, upon the arrival of the steamer here Captain Keen neglected to report them, Collector Kilbreth, when he heard the story, said that he would interced with the Secretary of the Treasury for the remission of the fine.

The cabin passengers, as now entered, are Mrs. Mylius, Miss Helen Keegan and Miss Mary Harmon, of this city, Mrs. Annie Cushing, Captain Goddard and Louis Bonin, a Canadian. The five men who swam out to the ship at Rio are on the ship's list as steerage passengers. They were sent to Ellis Island.
